A TIME 4

Celebration

AT SPACE 4 ART

Exhibition Space:

Space 4 Art is becoming one of the premier cultural hubs and gathering places for the San Diego Arts. Set in a beautiful 1920s warehouse space in East Village, Space 4 Art has been masterly transformed into multiple levels of specialized live/work studios and significant gallery space where art shows, dance, poetry and theatre performances and other events are held. The gallery space, complete with bar and outdoor entertainment space, is located at the main warehouse.

Location: 325 Fifteenth Street, San Diego, CA
(East Village Between J & K)

Dates: Sat., July 23 – Sat., July 30, 2011

Contact: Midge Hyde (619) 466-3711

Entry Deadline: Now through June 30, 2011

Opening Reception: Sat., July 23, 6 – 9pm

Entry Fees & Guidelines:

- A $15 fee for up to three entries. Nonmembers can join WCA when dropping off art. Checks to be written payable to WCA/SD.
- 3-D pieces are welcome
- All 2-D works must be ready to hang with hooks & wires

Our Juror: To be determined

Eligibility: Open to all WCA members. If you aren't a member yet, you can join for the show.

Artist Sales:

All sales will be processed through the WCA/SD. 20% commission will be paid to WCA/SD from the sale price, so please price your work accordingly. Selling artists will receive payment within 30 days of the closing of the exhibition.

Exhibition Objective:

“Celebration” is an exhibition encouraging artists of San Diego to interpret and share something worth rejoicing. Artists are encouraged to explore personal, historical, political or other milestones as they strive to represent a chosen celebratory moment.

“Celebration” is also an opportunity to call attention to San Diego’s Monarch School, a haven for homeless kids. The event will aid and support the school’s art program through your participation.
